

Cable laying cable tray pulley price

AI Overview

Cable tray pulleys for cable laying typically range from £19 to £50 per unit or set, depending on material, size, and supplier.

Price Overview

- Amazon UK offers a 5-set of nylon cable tray pulleys for approximately £19-£25, suitable for small to medium cable installations and DIY projects .
- OnBuy lists individual or small sets of cable tray pulleys priced around £19-£25, often with clamping or adjustable features for easier installation .
- Specialized suppliers like Cabledrumjacks provide heavy-duty galvanized steel cable tray rollers for industrial applications, which can cost more, typically £40-£50 or higher per unit, depending on size and load capacity .
- AliExpress and Alibaba offer a wide range of cable tray pulleys, including adjustable clamp models and nylon rollers, often with bulk pricing and international shipping options .

Factors Affecting Price

- Material: Nylon pulleys are generally cheaper, while galvanized steel or heavy-duty industrial pulleys cost more.
- Size and Load Capacity: Larger pulleys designed for heavy cables or multiple cable runs are more expensive.
- Design Features: Adjustable clamps, sealed bearings, or U-shaped frames for suspension rollers increase cost.
- Quantity: Buying in sets or bulk often reduces the per-unit price.
