AI Overview

Slovenia has several cable tray manufacturers, including Elba d.o.o., Bevec d.o.o., and Cable House, offering a range of materials and custom solutions.

Key Manufacturers

Elba d.o.o. Elba is a leading Slovenian manufacturer of electrical installation products, including cable trays and accessories. They produce trays from tinned sheet metal or stainless steel, which can also be hot-tinned or powder-coated to order. Elba offers custom manufacturing and has advanced machinery, including TRUMPF laser machines and computer-guided bending equipment, ensuring high precision and quality for industrial and commercial applications . Bevec d.o.o. Bevec manufactures cable trays for industrial, transportation, and infrastructure projects. Their trays range from 50 to 600 mm in width and 50 to 60 mm in height, made from galvanized, hot-dip galvanized, or stainless steel sheets, with optional powder coating. They provide a wide variety of bends, couplers, and accessories, supporting complex installations and meeting environmental standards . Cable House Cable House is recognized for producing cable trays along with other electrical components like cable ties, crimping tools, and connectors. They offer customized solutions and maintain strict quality control, serving both national and international markets. Their facilities are equipped to manufacture cable trays in various sizes and configurations to meet specific industrial requirements . Other Suppliers Additional suppliers, such as Jeetmull Jaichandlall (P) Ltd., also operate in Slovenia, providing cable trays in multiple sizes, shapes, and materials, emphasizing durability and compliance with industry standards .
