

Industrial Switch Purchaser in Democratic Republic of Congo

AI Overview

Key industrial switch purchasers in the DRC include ENGELEC-RDC Sarl and Gaclay Sarl, both serving mining and industrial sectors with electrical equipment and switchgear.

Major Companies and Distributors

ENGELEC-RDC Sarl operates in Lubumbashi and Kolwezi, providing procurement and logistical services for the mining and industrial sectors in the DRC and beyond. They act as a manufacturing agent for switchgear, electric motors, valves, pumps, and other industrial equipment, consolidating multiple items into single consignments for cost-effective logistics. Their clients include major mining companies such as Mutanda Copper Mining, Ruashi Copper Mining, Kamoto Copper Company, and international industrial groups, making them a key purchaser and distributor of industrial switches and related equipment in the region . Gaclay Sarl focuses on electrical services in the Greater Katanga region, including installation, assembly, and maintenance of high and low voltage electrical components. They specialize in MV/LV and HV/MV transformers, industrial cable networks, and certified testing, positioning them as a significant purchaser and user of industrial switchgear for mining and industrial projects .
