

Tendering Status of Relay Protection Systems

AI Overview

There are currently multiple active tenders for protection relay systems across government and private sectors, with platforms like TenderNews, TendersOnTime, TenderDekho, and FirstTender providing up-to-date listings and procurement details.

Current Tender Opportunities

- India-focused tenders: Platforms like TenderDekho list around 80 active relays tenders from government buyers including the Military Engineer Services and Indian Navy, covering replacement of defective track relays, S&T cables, and other protection equipment, with combined opportunity values around ₹1.0 crore (TenderDekho) .
- Global ABB Protection Relay tenders: TendersOnTime provides access to international tenders for ABB protection relays, including RFPs, RFQs, BOQs, EOIs, and prequalification documents, with coverage in over 240 countries .
- Government and PSU tenders: FirstTender lists 20 live protection relay tenders from government, public, and private sectors, including supply of numerical non-directional IDMT relays and master relays approved by state electricity boards .
- Specialized projects: TenderNews highlights tenders for replacement of overaged overhead lines, faulty underground cables, and motor protection circuit breakers, as well as Q-Series neutral line relays .
- NTPC eProcurement: The NTPC portal provides access to tenders for electrical and protection systems, including online submission and payment guidance for bidders .
