

Uruguay s Chili Bridge

Overview

Opened in December 2015, this circular bridge spans the biodiverse Laguna Garzón, connecting the departments of Maldonado and Rocha. The bridge is famous for its unusual circular shape and was designed by Uruguayan architect Rafael Viñoly. She has written for TheTravel, MovieWeb, Ranker, The List, and Tasting Table. Her articles have been shared by IMDB. This bridge connects Maldonado and Rocha, south of the Laguna Garzón lagoon, near its outlet in the Atlantic Ocean. Viñoly was tasked with creating a bridge that would form a direct. The bridge was designed by Rafael Viñoly Architects, the same firm that's responsible for a number of well-known buildings throughout the world, including the super-tall 432 Park Avenue in New York, Japan National Stadium in Tokyo, and 20 Fenchurch Street, better known as London's infamous "Walkie.
