

Vanuatu electrical distribution box manufacturers for sale

AI Overview

Vanuatu has both local electrical contractors and regional suppliers offering electric distribution boxes, including XL-21 low-voltage cabinets and industrial-grade distribution systems.

Local Suppliers in Vanuatu

Vate Electrics is one of Vanuatu's longest-established electrical contractors, trusted by major institutions such as Bred Bank, National Bank of Vanuatu, and the Telecom Regulator. They provide high-quality electrical installations and can supply and install distribution boxes for domestic, residential, and industrial applications, ensuring system integrity and reliable workmanship . A directory of electrical companies in Vanuatu lists multiple local businesses that manufacture, distribute, or install electrical products, including distribution boxes. This directory can be used to identify additional suppliers and service providers within the country .

Regional and International Suppliers

For more specialized or industrial-grade distribution boxes, several regional suppliers near Vanuatu can provide solutions:

- Dongfeng XL-21 Power Distribution Cabinets: These low-voltage cabinets are suitable for single-phase and three-phase systems, with rated currents up to 800A and voltages below 500V. They feature air circuit breakers, fuses, contactors, and thermal relays, and comply with IEC 60439-1 and GB7251.1 standards .
